1. The Puppies and mother dog will be brought back to the Adams County S.P.C.A. when the puppies are six weeks of age for distemper vaccinations and de-worming. The puppies will then return to your home until eight weeks of age.
2. At eight weeks of age the puppies will return to the A.C.S.P.C.A. to be placed for adoption.
3. All puppy / dog return, vaccine, and adoption dates will be determined by the Animal Health Coordinator. These dates will be given to you at the time of pickup.
4. All puppy food and other non-essentials will be provided by the foster parents, not the A.C.S.P.C.A.
5. No puppy / dog will be given away to friends or family. Please inform potential adopters of when the puppies will return to the shelter. They may adopt the puppies at the shelter. Applications for puppies may be taken before adoption release, but the puppies will still be on a first come first serve basis whether we have an application ahead of time or not.

6. Immediately call the A.C.S.P.C.A. if any dog becomes ill during regular business hours at 717-334-8876 (Mon., Wed., Thurs., Fri. 11-5, Sat. and Sun. 10-4, closed Tuesday). If you are to have an emergency situation during non-business hours you will be provided with an emergency contact number on your sign out sheet. If you choose to take any animal to the veterinarian without shelter approval, you are responsible for the medical bill, not the A.C.S.P.C.A.
7. You will not hold the Adams County S.P.C.A. responsible for any illness that may be transmitted to your own pets.
8. As a foster parent you are entitled to one puppy adoption at no cost, in accordance to current adoption processes. If you do decide to adopt a puppy you will not hold the A.C.S.P.C.A. responsible for any medical bills you may incur. If you would like to keep the mother dog you can with the understanding that you will spay the animal within 30 days of returning the puppies, and be in accord with all other adoption policies.
9. All puppies and dogs under your care are to be treated with the utmost respect, dignity and love.
